

My PD Journey Partners and Collaborators 2014-2017

European Strategic Committee

My PD Journey was launched in 2014 and was, until 2017, governed by the European Strategic Committee (ESC), chaired by the EPDA. The ESC provided strategic oversight during the initial years of the project, ensuring effective implementation of the initiative's work programme. From 1st September 2017, the ESC was disbanded, making My PD Journey a standalone EPDA project.

From 2014-2017, the ESC included a number of high-profile European Parkinson's specialist neurologists as well as representatives from:

- European Brain Council (EBC) (Tadeusz Mikolaj Hawrot)
- Eurocarers (Henk Bakkerode)
- European Parkinson's Disease Association (EPDA)
- Council of Occupational Therapists for the European Countries (COTEC) (Ingrid Sturkenboom)
- Cure Parkinson's Trust (Helen Matthews)

Parkinson's disease specialist neurologists who have supported My PD Journey over the years' include:

- Alberto Albanese
- Angelo Antonini
- Bastiaan R Bloem
- Ray Chaudhuri
- Nir Giladi
- Tove Henriksen
- Pablo Martinez Martin
- Per Odin
- Fabiana Radicati
- Olivier Rascol
- Anette-Eleonore Schrag
- Fabrizio Stocchi
- Annamária Takáts
- Eduardo Tolosa

Funding partners

We have partnered with the following treatment industry companies, all of which have supported the aims of My PD Journey.

- AbbVie
- Boston Scientific
- Britannia Pharmaceuticals
- Medtronic
- Teva Pharmaceutical Industries
- UCB